

INTERFAITH DIALOGUE RADIO SERIES HISTORICAL NOTE

From December 2006 to November 2010, Interfaith Dialogue was broadcast on KRFC, 88.9 FM with the weekly half-hour series airing at 6:00 pm each Thursday. Produced in cooperation with The Fort Collins Area Interfaith Council, the programs explored the range and depth of local faith traditions, their services to the community, and their interaction with the social, economic, cultural life of the listening area. The originator and weekly host of the series was Richard A. Thompson, an ordained Presbyterian pastor, who previously volunteered as an eighteen-year host/producer of an interreligious public affairs network television series in Austin, Texas, and earlier as a host on the broadcast ministry of the Greater Chicago Church Federation. The following is a summary of the programs over the four years of the broadcast.
