

Name of Affiliated Agency:

The SAVA Center

Service Program(s) and description:

Therapy Services

Whether this is something you are dealing with right now or something from the past, we are here for you. SAVA offers individual therapy and support groups.

Intake process

Schedule a one hour intake to learn more about services and to see if SAVA is a fit for you. Call the SAVA office at 970-472-4204 to make an appointment.

Advocacy

Accompany a survivor to court, assistance with victim compensation paperwork.

Bilingual

24 Hour Rape Crisis Hotline and advocacy services available in Spanish.

Preventing Sexual Assault

Speak Up!

Prevention education groups in the middle schools focusing on sexual assault and sexual harassment.

SART Peers

Trained high school students facilitate presentations to their peers on sexual harassment at schools in the Poudre School District.

"Until Someone Wakes Up"

Prevention education theatrical performance. A play about sexual assault, gender roles and stereotypes.

SuperGirls

A running program for young girls focused on self-esteem building.

Community Outreach

Presentations to the community.

We serve . . .

All people affected by sexual assault in Northern Colorado

Location and days/hours of service:

The SAVA Center Offices Are Located At:

331 South Meldrum
Fort Collins, CO 80521
970-472-4204

929 38th Avenue Court #106
Greeley, CO 80634
970-506-4059

24 Hour Rape Crisis Hotline
Línea de Crisis 24 horas
970-472-4200

Fax 970-674-7023

Office Hours:
Monday - Friday
8:30am - 5:00pm

Website:

www.savacenter.org

Contact information:

24 Hour Rape Crisis Hotline
Línea de Crisis 24 horas
970-472-4200
331 South Meldrum
Fort Collins, CO 80521
970-472-4204

Common volunteer opportunities:

Volunteer victim advocates; helping with our prevention programs for youth

Benefits we derive from participation in Interfaith Council:

Informing and inspiring a group of people who act on faith and lending our support to their causes as well...seeing how we are all connected in our community.